THE CITY OF JOY

The top four tourist spots to visit if you want to make your stay at Kolkata memorable!

Howrah Bridge

To say that Howrah Bridge is one of the top places to visit in Kolkata would be an understatement. An unofficial emblem of the city, Howrah Bridge merits a visit if you want to spend some time alone with just the ocean in front of you. Sit here in silence or simply observe the fishermen go about their work at dawn and dusk.

Victoria Memorial

Victoria Memorial is one of the most visited places in Kolkata, and for all good reasons. Named after Queen Victoria, it now serves as a museum and is perfect for history buffs. If you ever feel like taking a walk down our past and reflect on how long India has come from its colonization days, visit this place.

Park Street

If posting photos of brunches with your bffs is your favorite thing to do, head to Park Street. Because this place has the most instagrammable cafes and restaurants! Park Street has become a hub for people who want to chill out in the evening. From high-end restaurants to iconic clubs and pubs, this place has them all.

Dakhineswar Temple

The temple is dedicated to Bhavatarani, an aspect of Goddess Kali and 'the savior of the universe'. One of the oldest and most important temples to have ever been built, it receives pilgrims from all over the world. The temple was founded by Rani Rashmoni. The idea of building this temple came to her in a dream and this was the last thing she did before going on a pilgrimage to Varanasi.
